READING COMPREHENSION

Read the dialogue from the series "Heartstopper' and answer the questions below:

Context: Nick and Charlie are sitting together. Nick is starting to open up about his feelings and how confused he has been feeling lately.

Charlie: "You don't have to have it all figured out right now. You know that, right?"

Charlie: "You don't have to have it all figured out right now. You know that, right?"

Charlie: "Well, we can clean it together. Or we can just sit in the mess for a while. I don't mind the mess."

1. How does Nick describe his current state of mind using a metaphor?

_____

2. What is Charlie's main piece of advice to Nick at the beginning of the dialogue?

_____

3. In the last sentence, what does Charlie mean when he says he "doesn't mind the mess"?

_____