MIXED CONDITIONALS

condicionais mistas: passado e presente na mesma frase

O QUE É?

Mixed conditionals (condicionais mistas)
misturam dois tempos diferentes na mesma frase.

A condição (if) fica em um tempo e o resultado em outro.

Sempre falam de situações imaginárias, que não são reais.

IF (condição)
num tempo

RESULTADO
em outro tempo

passado $\rightleftharpoons$ presente

ANTES: REVISÃO RÁPIDA

2nd CONDITIONAL

If + past simple, would + verbo
presente/futuro imaginário

If I had money, I would travel.
Se eu tivesse dinheiro, eu viajaria.

3rd CONDITIONAL

If + past perfect, would have + particípio
passado imaginário

If I had studied, I would have passed.
Se eu tivesse estudado, eu teria passado.

Mixed = uma parte de cada! A condição de uma + o resultado da outra.

TIPO 1: PASSADO PARA PRESENTE

If + past perfect
had + particípio

would + verbo base
infinitivo sem to

PASSADO: o que não aconteceu

PRESENTE: o resultado hoje

Example 1

If I had taken that job, I would live in Paris now.

Se eu tivesse aceitado aquele emprego, eu moraria em Paris agora.

Example 2

If she hadn't missed the bus, she wouldn't be late now.

Se ela não tivesse perdido o ônibus, ela não estaria atrasada agora.

TIPO 2: PRESENTE PARA PASSADO

If + past simple
ou were (com qualquer sujeito)

would have + particípio
would have + past participle

PRESENTE: como as coisas são

PASSADO: o resultado que aconteceu

Example 1

If he were more careful, he wouldn't have broken his phone.

Se ele fosse mais cuidadoso, ele não teria quebrado o celular.

Example 2

If they didn't live so far away, they would have come to the party.

Se eles não morassem tão longe, eles teriam vindo à festa.

COMPARANDO OS DOIS TIPOS

Tipo	Cláusula if	Resultado	Ideia
Passado → Presente	past perfect had + particípio	would + verbo base	Se algo tivesse acontecido antes, hoje seria diferente.
Presente → Passado	past simple (ou were)	would have + particípio	Se algo fosse diferente hoje, o passado teria sido outro.

Dica: o if fala do que NÃO aconteceu ou NÃO é verdade. O resultado mostra a diferença.

COMO ESCOLHER O TIPO?

1 A condição (if) fala do passado ou de como as coisas são hoje?

2 O resultado fala de agora ou de algo que já aconteceu?

TIPO 1 Resultado no PRESENTE

Pistas: now · today · these days · at the moment

..., I would be calmer now.

TIPO 2 Resultado no PASSADO

Pistas: yesterday · last year · at that time · on time

..., he would have arrived on time.

VARIAÇÕES ÚTEIS

Could / might

Troque would por could (poderia) ou might (talvez) para mudar o sentido.

If I had slept well, I could focus now.

Contração 'd

'd pode ser had ou would. O verbo depois mostra qual é.

If I'd studied, I'd be a doctor now.

If no final

Se a cláusula com if vem depois, não usamos vírgula.

I would be a doctor now if I had studied.

ERROS COMUNS

✗ If I would have studied, I would be a doctor now.

✓ If I had studied, I would be a doctor now.

Dica: Não use would na cláusula if.

✗ If he were kinder, he wouldn't said that.

✓ If he were kinder, he wouldn't have said that.

Dica: Tipo 2: sempre would have + particípio.

✗ If I had left earlier, I will be there now.

✓ If I had left earlier, I would be there now.

Dica: Use would, não will: a situação é imaginária.

ATIVIDADE

Mixed Conditionals
