

WHO PAYS?

LET'S TALK ABOUT MONEY!

YOUR GOAL

Learn six useful money expressions and use them in everyday situations. Work at your own pace. Check your answers on page 4.

1 LEARN THE EXPRESSIONS

Read each expression, its meaning in Brazilian Portuguese, and the English example.

1. afford — ter dinheiro suficiente para pagar por algo

Example: I can't afford a new phone this month.

2. owe — dever dinheiro a alguém

Example: I owe Mia ten dollars.

3. split the bill — dividir a conta entre as pessoas

Example: Let's split the bill after dinner.

4. chip in — contribuir com dinheiro para algo em grupo

Example: We all chipped in for a birthday cake.

5. pay back — devolver dinheiro emprestado

Example: I'll pay you back on Friday.

6. save up — juntar dinheiro para um objetivo

Example: I'm saving up for a bicycle.

Language Tip

- Owe + someone + amount: I owe Mia ten dollars
- Pay someone back: I will pay you back tomorrow
- Save up for + goal: I'm saving up for a bicycle

WHO PAYS?

LET'S TALK ABOUT MONEY!

2 MATCH THE MEANINGS

Write the correct letter next to each expression. One example is done for you.

1. afford (c)
2. owe (___)
3. split the bill (___)
4. chip in (___)
5. pay back (___)
6. save up (___)

a. Return borrowed money.
b. Contribute money with others.
~~c. Have enough money to pay.~~
d. Keep money for a future goal.
e. Have to return money to someone.
f. Share the cost of a bill.

3 COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

Word bank: afford • owe • split the bill • chip in • pay back • save up

Use each expression once. Change its form if necessary.

1. This restaurant is too expensive. I can't _____ it.
2. I borrowed $15 from Tom. I _____ him $15.
3. We all ordered similar meals, so we decided to _____ .
4. Everyone will _____ $3 for the class gift.
5. Thanks for the loan! I'll _____ you _____ tomorrow.
6. I want to _____ for a short holiday.

4 CHOOSE THE BEST EXPRESSION

Circle a or b.

1. You and your friend each pay half. a) split the bill b) save up
2. Your friend lends you money. Later, you return it. a) chip in b) pay back
3. You don't have enough money for concert tickets. a) can't afford b) don't owe

Language Tip

- "I owe you $10" describes money you need to return.
- "I'll pay you back" describes the action of returning it.

WHO PAYS?

LET'S TALK ABOUT MONEY!

5 READ THE CONVERSATION

Ella: The food was great! Shall we split the bill?

Ben: Sure. But I can't afford dessert today. I'm saving up for a bike.

Ella: No problem. You only had pasta, so you owe $12.

Ben: Oh, I forgot my wallet. Could you pay for me?

Ella: Of course. You can pay me back tomorrow.

Ben: Thanks! Next week, we can both chip in for Sam's birthday cake.

6 CHECK YOUR UNDERSTANDING

Write T (true) or F (false).

1. Ben is saving money for a bicycle. ____
2. Ben has enough money for dessert today. ____
3. Ella agrees to pay for Ben for now. ____
4. Ben suggests buying Sam a cake together. ____

7 WHAT WOULD YOU SAY?

Complete each response with one expression from page 1.

a) A friend asks how much money you need to return. "I _____ you $8."

b) Three friends are paying for a pizza together. "Let's _____ ."

c) You want to buy a computer next year. "I'm going to _____ for it."

8 MAKE IT YOURS

Write two original sentences using two different expressions. You can create situations.

_____

_____

_____

_____

QUICK RECALL

Cover page 1. Without looking, write the English expression for:
devolver dinheiro emprestado _____ ; contribuir em grupo _____ ;
juntar dinheiro _____ .

Self-check: ☐ I understand the six expressions. ☐ I can use at least three without looking.

WHO PAYS?
ANSWER KEY

Check your work after completing the activities. For writing tasks, compare your meaning with the examples.

Questions 1 Learn the Expressions and 5 Read the conversation do not have answer key

2 Match the meanings

1 c (example) • 2 e • 3 f • 4 b • 5 a • 6 d

3 Complete the sentences

1. afford
2. owe
3. split the bill
4. chip in
5. pay / back
6. save up

4 Choose the best expression

1. a — split the bill / 2. b — pay back / 3. a — can't afford

6 Check your understanding

1. T — Ben is saving up for a bike.
2. F — Ben says he can't afford dessert.
3. T — Ella offers to pay and Ben can return the money later.
4. T — Ben suggests they both contribute to Sam's cake.

7 What would you say?

a) owe

b) split the bill

c) save up

8 Make it yours — sample answers

"I can't afford a new jacket this week."

"My friends and I chipped in for a present."

Other answers are correct if the expressions fit the situations and are used naturally.

Quick recall

pay back • chip in • save up

REMEMBER THESE DIFFERENCES

Owe: money you need to return.
Pay back: the act of returning it.
Split the bill: share a restaurant bill.
Chip in: contribute to a shared cost or purchase.
Save up: put money aside over time for a goal.

